

Suggested prayer points
22nd January 2023

Thank God for who he is:

Thank our Lord for calling us into his family, as his children. Thank the Lord for our earthly family and our heavenly family

The World:

- The Americas. Thank God for the rich Christian heritage of many a nation in these continents and especially in South America, the recent growth in the church. Pray for God to continue to raise up mature, biblically wise and pastorally caring church leaders for each new generation, in each cultural and language group
- Pray for peace in Ukraine and in other places where there is war, strife and terrorism. Pray that those in difficulties will learn of Christ and find comfort, strength and hope
- Pray for the Chinese world, in China and the diaspora, as we celebrate Chinese New Year that the Lord would continue to reveal Christ the Lord to this people group.

Singapore:

- Thank the Lord for the nation of Singapore and its people and pray that God's wise hand will guide the leaders of our nation, those elected as well as business leaders in how this nation can be best served.
- Pray for our President and Prime Minister that they will know that there is sovereign Lord God who rules over them.
- Ask the Lord for wisdom and godly guidance for our Bishop Titus as he leads the Anglican church in fulfilling the great commission and great commandment.

St George's

- Pray for local mission partner Prison Fellowship Singapore. Pray that the witness of the inmates who from Christ the Lord will have a godly effect on other prisoners, guards and staff.
- Praise God for Priscilla and the Women's Ministry Team for their work with women of St George's and ask the Lord to continue to touch lives in ways that brings honour to Christ.
- Bring before the Lord those who are sick, especially at this Lunar New Year that they will know the strength of Christ Jesus: Anna-Lily, Jayanthi, Jacqueline, Joanna, Judd, Pearl, Rev Paul, Tee Dhye, and Yu Ping